Today isn't great for me- trying to catch up from my vacation. Tomorrow I'm free anytime after 11.

Lauren,

Are you free on either Monday afternoon or anytime on Tuesday to speak with Kevin Murphy and myself about Lower Ley Creek? The PRPs have been proceeding as you and I discussed before your vacation, but issues arose at the technical meeting on Wednesday which the PRPs extensively discussed on Thursday and require some discussion with you. These issues are mainly related to DEC's view of its role in the technical review and approval process and its apparent position on certain technical issues. The purpose of our call with you is not to get into the substance of any technical issues, but to talk about the impact that the DEC's involvement and views can be expected to have on schedule and other issues which have been advancing between the PRPs and EPA.

If you are free, give us a time to call you and we will initiate the call. Thank you.

David
